For the Man of Action

a really satisfactory heating and lighting system is essential.

Gas fires are pre-eminently convenient, economical and efficient: they are lighted in a moment, need no attention, give a prompt and ample radiant heat.

Modern gas burners with incandescent mantles give a light that is restful to the eyes and can be arranged to yield every degree of brilliance from a gentle glow to a searching illumination.

Gas Water Heaters give prompt hot water at the shortest notice at any hour of the day or night.
